Re: Case 1-07-0088

Dear Honorable Justice Smith,

As stated in my court filings, there are several clear and fundamental errors in the Order drafted by you in the case (No. 1-07-0088). Enclosed please find a copy of the following documents: (1) The December 8, 2005 Order; (2) My November 23, 2005 motion; (3) The November 17, 2005 Order; (4) My November 3, 2005 Motion.

After a cursory reading of the above documents, one will be readily convinced that it is plain wrong to assume that (1) I did not contest the November 17, 2005 Order; (2) I misapprehended the record with respect to that my motions for substitution of judge had been granted in the trial court, which were filed on November 3, 2005 and November 23, 2005 respectively. As such, again, with due respect, I would appreciate very much if you could correct the errors within your capacity, if possible.

Defendant's counsel Ms. Elaine S. Vorberg is very familiar with the above documents, although she contended that it was not clear from the record why Judge Davis returned the case to Courtroom 1501 for judge reassignment. I believe a lawyer does not have a license to provide deliberate misleading statements of material facts in court. And I would be for ever grateful if you can do something about it within your duty and authority.

Sincerely yours.

Yuling Zhan
