ORDER

This appeal stems from the purchase of a used car in 2003 which, allegedly, stalled within days of purchase. Plaintiff Yuling Zahn brought suit against defendant Napleton Buick. After a bench trial, judgment was entered in favor of defendant and against plaintiff. Plaintiff appeals, arguing: (1) the trial court lacked jurisdiction to enter judgment; (2) the trial court's order dismissing particular counts of plaintiff's complaint was void; (3) the trial court erred where it dismissed certain other counts of plaintiff's second amended complaint; (4) the trial court erred where it allowed hearsay evidence at trial; (5) the trial court applied the incorrect legal standard with respect to plaintiff's claims under the "Odometer Act," and (6) the trial court's verdict in favor of defendant and against plaintiff was against the manifest weight of the evidence. As a supplementary matter, plaintiff filed a motion, which we took with the case, to strike defendant's
